Abstract: The main objective of our project is to serve the society so we chose a category of working people who are suffering from dangerous pollution in today's world they are TRAFFIC POLICE. Not only traffic police bikers, industrial workers, municipality workers and many other people suffer from pollution. In order to avoid pollution they use normal masks which are available in society due to which they just act as barrier but those masks do not prevent the people from pollution hence we prepared this mask to rescue people's health so that they can at least from now can protect their health. Our main motto is to serve the people. As pollution is major problem in today's developing world, however we cannot stop the pollution so; in order to protect ourselves from pollution we can use this mask which contains filter to protect ourselves from pollution.
